Explanation of Responses:

- On February 10, 2011, the restrictions on the Stock Units lapsed and these Stock Units converted to shares of Common Stock on a 1-for-1 basis.
- The stock options become exercisable in three equal annual installments beginning on February 10, 2012.
- The stock units convert to ConocoPhillips common stock on a 1-for-1 basis.
- The stock units will be forfeited if the reporting person separates from service prior to the end of an escrow period ending on the earliest to occur of the following: (a) termination of employment as a result of layoff; (b) termination of employment after attainment of age 55 with five years of service; (c) termination of employment due to death or total disability; or (d) termination of employment following a change in control. During the escrow period, the reporting person may not dispose of the stock units. The stock units will convert to common stock on the later of (a) the end of the escrow period or (b) the earlier of (i) death or (ii) six months after separation from service in which case the stock units will convert to common stock. The reporting person may also elect to defer conversion of stock units until a later date.
- The stock units do not have an expiration date.
