Explanation of Responses:

- The shares of phantom stock were acquired under a Defined Contribution Makeup Plan providing for settlement upon termination of employment, subject to possible deferred payment in certain circumstances. The reporting of this transaction is not an acknowledgement that it is not an exempt transaction under the Excess Benefit Plan pursuant to Rule 16a-3(c).
- The shares of phantom stock convert to ConocoPhillips common stock on a 1-for-1 basis.
- The stock options become exercisable in three equal annual installments beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant.
- The stock units convert to ConocoPhillips common stock on a 1-for-1 basis.
- The stock units do not have an expiration date.
- The stock units will be forfeited if the reporting person separates from service prior to the end of an escrow period ending on the earliest to occur of the following: (a) termination of employment as a result of layoff; (b) termination of employment by the Company without cause or by mutual agreement; (c) termination of employment due to death or total disability; or (d) termination of employment following a change in control. During the escrow period, the reporting person may not dispose of the stock units. The stock units will convert to common stock on the later of (a) the end of the escrow period or (b) the earlier of (i) death or (ii) six months after separation from service in which case the stock units will convert to common stock. The reporting person may also elect to defer conversion of stock units until a later date.
